Former magistrate somehow avoids jail on child abuse images charge

A TRAVESTY OF JUSTICE

A PAEDOPHILE teacher from Essex has avoided jail after being convicted of downloading the most severe category of child abuse images.

Vincent Copeland, 61, a former teacher at Thorpe Bay School, now called Futures College, was charged with the offences on May 28 relating to images ranging from category A to C.

The former magistrate pleaded guilty to three counts of possessing the images at Ipswich Crown Court on Thursday, September 9.

At a previous hearing the court heard how Copeland had posed as a 14-year-old on an online chat forum. He had also met up with another paedophile. Once arrested, police found images of children as young as ten.

The court heard that Copeland, of Leigh Road, Southend, had a history of working with children in a range of roles throughout Essex.

He served as a governor at St

Thomas More High School, Westcliff, and Our Lady of Lourdes Primary School, Leigh – in addition to having sat on Southend Council's children and lifelong learning scrutiny committee.

Investigating officer DC Tony Miller said: "This case was extremely concerning as not only did Copeland admit to accessing indecent images of children for years – he occupied positions of public trust, serving as both a magistrate and a school governor, and was heavily involved with his local church.

"Although there is no evidence that Copeland carried out contact sexual abuse, we have worked closely with Southend Council and the schools and church he was involved with to ensure they have been kept fully up to date with the progress of the investigation.

Child abuse charity founder slams sentence as too lenient

EXCLUSIVE

By Charles Thomson

basildon@yellowad.co.uk

THE FOUNDER of one of Britain's biggest child abuse charities has criticised the "lenient" sentence given to Vincent Copeland.

Peter Saunders, founder of the National Association of People Abused in Childhood (NAPAC), described the sentence as "bizarre".

Copeland pleaded guilty to possessing Category A, B and C images.

Government sentencing guidelines state that the maximum term for accessing Category A images – defined as images which either depict penetrative sexual acts with children or sadistic or bestial acts with children – is three years in prison.

Sentencing guidelines state that the former teacher, school governor and magistrate's attempt to destroy evidence should have aggravated his sentence, as should his abuse of trust.

He received a three-year community order.

Mr Saunders, who sits on the National Child Abuse Inquiry's victims' and survivors' panel, said: "It's beyond bizarre. Hearing about this man receiving a community punishment – it makes me want to vomit.

"What that man needed, and what the local community needed, was a clear message that what he did was totally and utterly unacceptable and deplorable and wrong.

able and deplorable and wrong.

"To access images of children being raped and abused is akin to paying someone to do it. And in his position, it should attract an even more severe penalty than the ordinary man in the street, because he has a position of power and trust.

"Sentences such as this send out a very bad message to others that they can get away with it."

Mr Saunders had planned to appeal against the "undue leniency" of the sentence.

He said: "I absolutely will run it past our chief executive. And I would support anybody else who considered doing it as well."

Details on reporting "unduly lenient" sentences is available at: <https://www.gov.uk/ask-crown-court-sentence-review>.

Airport tech hub off to a flying start

LIFT OFF Cllr Andrew Moring, Southend Council's executive councillor for corporate and community support services, Harry Bunbury of Henry Boot developments, Cllr Terry Cutmore, leader of Rochford Council and Sally Holland, corporate director of corporate services for Southend Council

WORK has begun on a new £150m business park in Southend, with the first phase of major infrastructure projects creating access via a new roundabout off of Cherry Orchard Way.

The development site, located to the north-west corner of Southend Airport, has already seen outline planning consent granted for 1 million square feet of 'advanced technology' business space, a new Anglia Ruskin University Medical Technology campus, an innovation centre and a hotel.

The first section of the business park's main 'spine road' will be built, along with utility and drainage works, while landscaping and the development of a sub-station will be completed by spring 2017.

Work to create 10 new rugby pitches as part of the relocation of Westcliff Rugby Club (WRFC) is also underway. The new pitches are set to be available to WRFC in time for the 2017/18 season.

Cllr John Lamb, leader of Southend Council, said: "This project is strategically important for both Southend and the Rochford district, and will bring in significant public and private sector investment and generate thousands of new jobs."

Cllr Terry Cutmore, leader of Rochford Council, added: "These infrastructure works form the first phase of a project which will ensure that Rochford District and Southend-on-Sea become renowned as a leading regional centre for the science, medical and technology sectors."

Clean-up campaign targets Southchurch

RESIDENTS are calling for ponds to be cleaned up at gardens in Southchurch.

A petition containing around 400 names has been collected by Maureen Stanton, 75, who said that some of the ponds in Southchurch Hall Gardens are "covered in weeds".

The Park Lane resident, who has lived there for 50 years, added that she had never seen the park's ponds in such a state.

She said: "It is a beautiful place when it is clean, but the ponds are still very bad and it is not nice for children."

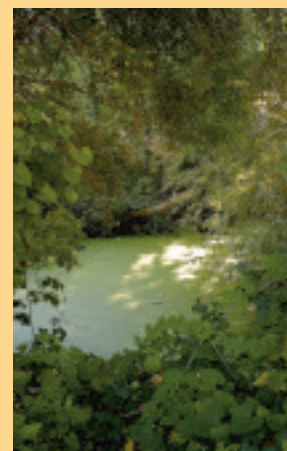

"I am concerned that children will run from the path straight into one of the ponds without knowing that they are there."

The park surrounds medieval manor house Southchurch Hall.

A Southend Council spokesman said: "The water features at Southchurch Hall are part of the scheduled monument and moated manor house."

"Unfortunately, any major work such as dredging the water would require scheduled monument consent and the attendance of an archaeologist."

"This is not possible within current resources. Because of this, we have and will continue to make external funding bids to carry out work on Southchurch Hall Park and the surrounding gardens.

"Meanwhile, we carry out regular litter picking and tidy the area where possible. Residents are welcome to submit a petition - this would be considered as per our adopted petitions scheme."

FUN SIZE: Children at Holt Farm Junior School try their new playground equipment

Fun and games at start of school year

PUPILS have been enjoying giant games that were installed ahead of the new school year.

The games were put in place over the summer in the playground at Holt Farm Junior School, Rochford.

Snakes and ladders, and hopscotch, are among the activities on offer to the children during their breaks or at lunchtimes.

Head of school Lucy Wass said: "It has been a fun start to the new term for pupils at the school, with the addition of new giant games in the playground.

"We are extremely grateful to our parent teacher association who raised enough money for games to be painted on a huge scale in bright colours."

Estuary festival makes a splash

Photos: Simon Fowler

AN ARTS festival inspired by the wonders of the Thames Estuary begins this weekend.

The Estuary Festival – a biennial programme of events run by Southend arts group Metal – features visual arts, literature, film and music to celebrate the estuary and its bordering communities.

The festival branches out into the Shorelines Literature Festival, curated by author

Rachel Lichtenstein, which includes talks, films and performances exploring estuary connections.

It is free to attend and will take place at the Tilbury Cruise Terminal, Ferry Road, Tilbury, from 11am to 7pm, on both days.

It is complemented by The Points of Departure exhibition – launching this weekend and running until September 30.

This features works by 28 artists who have dived into the landscape, history and culture of the estuary.

Their art will also be on display at the Tilbury Cruise Terminal, as well as in the streets and along the Quay in Gravesend, Kent.

Meanwhile, a pop-up museum of the Thames Estuary will be in Cliffs Gardens, Western Esplanade, Southend, from September 17 to October 2.

The museum will present a new collection of shipwreck finds alongside a drawing by Adam Dant that reveals shipwreck secrets still hidden beneath the waters.

It will be held inside a modified ship container in the planned site for the permanent Museum of the Thames Estuary, within the cliffs on Southend seafront.

PRISON: Ricky Lawrence, left, Scott Stillaway and Suri Sula

Jailed over 1kg cocaine seizure

THREE men have been jailed after a kilogram of cocaine was seized in a drugs raid in Westcliff.

They were arrested and charged with drugs offences after police executed a warrant at an address in The Leas on Friday, July 15.

All three pleaded guilty and were sentenced at Basildon Crown Court on Thursday, September 8.

Ricky Lawrence, 39, of Harrier Close, Shoeburyness, was jailed for five years for supplying Class A drugs and 18 months for money laundering. The sentences will run concurrently.

Scott Stillaway, 26, of The Leas, Westcliff, was jailed for 15 months for permitting his premises to be used for drugs and nine months, to run concurrently, for possession of Class A drugs.

The judge activated a nine-month suspended sentence from a previous offence to run consecutively. Suri Sula, 26, of Whitton Dene, Hounslow, west London, was jailed for three years and four months for possession with intent to supply Class A drugs.

DI Ed Mayo, of the serious and organised crime unit, said: "Drugs are the scourge of our society and those that deal them target the most vulnerable people. This sentencing has taken drug dealers off the streets of Essex, protecting residents and keeping people safe from harm."

"Drugs cause misery to the communities and individuals affected by them, and Essex Police takes the issue very seriously."

"These sentences show we will not tolerate drug dealing and we are determined to bring anyone involved in it to justice."

Chase High School

Excellence for all

THIS year at Chase High School we are celebrating 39.3 per cent of our Year 11 pupils achieving five or more GCSEs with grades of C or higher, including English and maths.

That's a 15 percent improvement on our results of a year ago and a huge testament to the incredible hard work of our pupils, their teachers and also the parents who have been encouraging the children through a very demanding period.

At Chase High School we have a clear focus on the need for excellent teaching, learning and behaviour.

We believe happy pupils are the best learners, so helping pupils to feel secure, as well as doing all we can to make every lesson as good as the best lesson, are the foci of all we do at Chase High.

We recognise the diversity of learners and we have experience of helping youngsters access apprenticeships, work placements, college courses and university.

Helping your children to develop into clever, articulate, well-rounded adults is so rewarding and we welcome the inevitable challenges in the knowledge that hard work really does pay. Determined learners are to be cherished, encouraged and given every opportunity.

There are lots of opportunities for students to excel outside the classroom with a wide range of extracurricular activities including trips, clubs, evening shows and drama and musical productions.

Strong pastoral care is also at the heart of the school. We manage children by year group and every child is a member of a tutor group and the cohort is managed by a head of year and a year administrator.

This means parents can be sure of a quick response to any query. Every child is also a member of a "house" which includes children from all ages and this encourages inter house competition in the form of quizzes, sports events, and the collection of house points from lessons.

The school has excellent facilities including a superbly equipped Sixth Form and shares its site with the community with use of several AstroTurf pitches through PlayFootball as well as sports facilities through Chase Leisure Centre.

For more information or a tour of our school, please contact our headteacher's PA on 01702 361182.

Determined learners are to be cherished, encouraged and given every opportunity

Banned: the idiot 'fan' with grenade

A MAN has been banned from attending football matches for three years after he was found guilty of taking a smoke grenade to a game in Southend.

Joe Randall, 18, of Elham Close, Gillingham, took the grenade to Roots Hall for Southend's match against Gillingham on August 6.

Essex Police said he was later charged with trying to enter the match while drunk and possessing the grenade.

He appeared at Southend Magistrates' Court today on Friday, September 9, and admitted both offences.

DC Keith Baker, Essex Police's dedicated football officer for Southend United, said: "Going to a football match should be a fun and enjoyable occasion and not one where people should be concerned for their welfare.

"By trying to take a smoke grenade into the ground Joe Randall could have not only disrupted the match but also risked the safety of his fellow fans.

"I hope this banning order will send a message that Essex Police takes this kind of action very seriously, and that we are determined to ensure fans of all teams coming to Roots Hall will have a safe and enjoyable day."

Shoebury drugs bust

TWO PEOPLE have been charged with drugs and money laundering offences following a search at a property in Shoebury on September 5.

Charlotte Johnson, 28, and Rocky Palmer, 35, both of Shoebury Avenue, were arrested at a caravan site in Clacton two days after the search.

Each was later charged with possessing Class A and B drugs with intent to supply, and money laundering.

They were remanded in custody to appear at Basildon Magistrates Court on Thursday, September 9.

Palmer was further remanded in custody until October 6.

Johnson was bailed until the same date.

Hospital appeal for volunteer drivers to ferry patients

SOUTHEND Hospital is calling for more volunteer drivers to take patients to and from their hospital appointments.

The hospital's Carecars service has been running for more than 20 years, but a rise in the number of patients using the service – as well as several drivers quitting the role due to ill-health – has led to a shortage.

Voluntary services manager Jane O'Connell said: "Our drivers are a lovely lot and it's a very worthwhile activity – really helping people who cannot get to the hospital themselves for a number of reasons.

"Drivers have their 'regulars', so it's quite a social thing to do. And it's nice to know that patients pay a suggested donation of 50p a mile – a fraction of the price of a taxi."

Alan Weir, who has been a Carecars driver for the past five years, added: "I'd be sitting at home if it wasn't for this, which gets me out, meeting new people."

"I've been a patient here, so it's helping me give something back."

Library shuts for six weeks

A LIBRARY in Leigh is to close for more than a month due to a major refurbishment that will change its layout.

Kent Elms Library will close at 7pm on Tuesday September 20 and reopen on Monday November 7.

The refurbishment will create a new welcoming area and there will be changes to the entrance to provide better access for those with mobility needs and pushchairs.

A private meeting room is also being created as a space which can be hired.

Cllr Ann Holland, Southend Council's executive councillor for culture, tourism and the economy, said: "We are excited to start work on the refurbishment of the library; we hope that residents enjoy the changes that new library users are encouraged to come along."

Cllr Holland added that library users will be able to borrow double the number of items before the closure and are being offered extended dates on loaned items.

Alternatives suggested by the council include Westcliff Library, 649 London Road, Westcliff and Leigh Library, Broadway West, Leigh-on-Sea and The Forum, Elmer Square, Southend.

It also suggested that anyone reserving items for collections should change the pick-up location to one of the above branches.

All library users are able to renew items online at www.southend.gov.uk/libraries or by phoning 01702 534151.

members of our communities – not least our children – from serious harm, and that remains our priority."

Copeland had come to the attention of the Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre (CEOP) when he changed his internet service provider and transferred indecent images between his old and new email accounts.

CEOP referred the case to Essex Police's online investigation team, which obtained a warrant on the same day – November 19, 2015 – and arrested him.

An Essex Police spokesman said: "Copeland, realising his internet service provider had raised the alarm, destroyed his laptop."

"However, when he was arrested Copeland made full admissions to officers that he had been using the internet for several years to look at indecent images of children."

Copeland was ordered to comply with a three-year community order.

He was also ordered to pay £428 court costs and a statutory £60 victim surcharge.

Essex Police would not release his mugshot because its policy is only to release images of offenders jailed for more than one year.

Joy over clutch of In Bloom awards

RAYLEIGH has won a number of awards at this year's Anglia In Bloom competition.

Rayleigh Town and the King George V Playing Field both received silver gilt at the awards ceremony at Pier Gardens, Gorleston-on-Sea, Norfolk, on September 6.

Holy Trinity Churchyard was awarded gold in the churchyards category for the second successive year, while Lower Wyburns Woodland achieved silver in the woodland category.

Cllr Christine Callis, Rayleigh Town Council chairman, said: "We are thrilled with all of these awards and it is good to receive recognition for the hard work of our Rayleigh in Bloom working party, the many volunteers, our sponsors and Rochford District Council who have all worked hard to make our town a pleasant place to live."

Tube charity cycle challenge in memory of father-of-two

A CYCLE challenge around the entire London Tube network is set to take place in memory of a father-of-two from Hockley who died from a brain tumour.

The One London Charity Cycle Challenge will see dozens of Transport for London staff cover 250 miles after their former colleague Steve Lloyd, 40, died a year ago.

Among those taking part will be Steve's widow Angie, 37, his brother Mark Lloyd from Thurrock, and Tara Lee, from Hanningfield.

The event is on Sunday, September 25 and 12 teams of four cyclists will set out to simultaneously pedal the route of each of the 12 Tube lines stopping at all 270 stations.

Steve died soon after last year's inaugural event when colleagues covered the 74 miles of the District Line and raised more than £25,000 for the charity Brain Tumour Research. He worked on the District Line for his 22-year career with TfL.

Angie said: "The last year has been extremely hard but knowing that Steve has not been forgotten is a great comfort to us all.

"I know it will be tough both physically and emotionally, particularly as it falls just three days before the first anniversary of Steve's death."

To donate £5 to Brain Tumour Research in support of the One London Charity Cycle Challenge text CURE35 £5 to 70070 and follow the journey @1LC16 on Twitter and #1LC16 on Facebook.

NO INTEREST: The derelict house in London Road, Leigh-on-Sea

'House of shame' is Leigh's blot on landscape

THIS pigeon-infested ruined building, with holes in the roof and windows open to the weather stands empty in London Road, Leigh-on-Sea, close to an old people's home and a major supermarket.

It looks like a haunted hovel and nobody seems to care. Leigh has been voted the happiest place to live in England, but with such a blot on the landscape, its crown is slipping.

Has no councillor or local government official been to see it? Is it a health risk?

With building land at a premium, is no developer interested?

Truly a house of shame.

Mike Eldridge-Doyle

Stamp of disapproval

for instore post offices

IT seems that WH Smith and the Post Office may have some agreement at senior level as Martin Berry suggests (Letters, Sept 9).

We visited Brentwood some months ago and needed the post office in High Street.

This also was located inside WH Smith on the first floor.

The lift was very small, not big enough for a mobility scooter.

The area to the post office counter was full of display stands and it was busy and crowded.

How anyone with walking difficulties, children and prams could manage we do not know.

It seems that these days no one thinks of the customer they only care for the profits.

At the time of writing, WH Smith, Southend, has no room for mobility scooters to go into the store, and is the lift adequate? If not, what about the extra cost?

As Mr Berry states there is the question of health and safety.

Country life on show

ESSEX Country Show attracted thousands of visitors to Barleylands, Billericay, on Saturday and Sunday.

The event, celebrating its 30th anniversary, featured a host of attractions such as monster trucks, steam engines and birds of prey displays.

It brought together the best of rural Essex, past and present, from steam engines and heavy horse ploughing demonstrations to modern machinery. The main ring featured Imperial Birds of Prey, Big Pete's Monster Trucks, a parade of steam engines, and music from the Royal British Legion Marching Band.

The countryside ring was packed with entertainment including classic car and vintage tractor parades, racing lambs, heavy horses, and the Mid Essex Newfoundlands carting display and a vintage farming display.

The Mid Essex Newfoundlands also took part in rescue scenarios on the lake.

There were also Punch and Judy shows, sheep shearing and demonstrations of basket weaving and boat building, along with craft marquees, food stalls and vintage funfair rides.

MILLER TIME

LEGION: The Astor Big Band

By Liz Wade

features@yellowad.co.uk

THIS Saturday, September 17, Astor Big Band will be appearing at Towngate Theatre, Basildon, to raise money for the Royal British Legion.

Their More Miller Magic show includes a host of Glenn Miller hits including In The Mood, Tuxedo Junction, American Patrol and Serenade in Blue.

The band, which has been appointed as an official touring show by the Royal British Legion to raise money for its Poppy Appeal, will be also perform big band hits of Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby and The Andrews Sisters, as well as songs from West End musicals, all in the unmistakable Miller style.

All profits from the show, as well as a collection in the interval, will go to the Royal British Legion's Poppy Appeal, which has a special focus on post-traumatic stress disorder.

There are some 6,000 modern day veterans who will – if they do not already – suffer from this terrible disability. A total of 274 veterans of the Falklands have already committed suicide and the only support they get is from the British Legion who need to raise an extra £250,000 a year just to provide care for those who are so badly affected that they have to live in sheltered accommodation.

Astor Big Band, which was formed to play at the Astor Club in London from 1971 to 1980, where jazz luminaries such as Count Basie would play after their show, are helping to raise vital cash for the appeal.

Terry Steel, who formed the band, has played with many of the touring British big bands and also for visiting stars including Sinatra, Neil Diamond and Barry Manilow.

Other up-and-coming shows at Basildon's Towngate Theatre include A Party To Murder, Seriously Dead and The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe.

A Party to Murder, which will be at the theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 27 and 28, sees six people enter a rustic island cottage in secret on Halloween to play a murder mystery game.

Secret passageways, incriminating letters, hidden compartments, bodies in the window seat and a 25-year-old unsolved mystery twist and turn towards an unexpected and terrifying conclusion.

The Talking Scarlet production, which stars Oliver Mellor from Coronation Street, Natasha Gray from Emmerdale and Michelle Morris from The Knock, will have audiences on the edge of their seats.

If it is the extraordinary you like then make sure you catch Seriously Dead, on Wednesday, October 12, with an everyday tale of passion, poison, pies, pasties and romance.

Autumn at Towngate

The new musical comedy stars Crissy Rock from Benidorm and I'm A Celebrity, and Frazer Hines from Emmerdale and Doctor Who, as well as Billy Pearce, Leah Bell and Paul Dunn.

It is written by Leah Bell and Crissy Rock, with original music by Mike Redway, and follows one ordinary day in the quiet town of Olwinskirk, when a chain of extraordinary events begins to take place, bringing the lives of Betty, Albert, Billy and the local undertaker –Tristan de Winter – to an uncomfortable crossroads.

Albert Blunderstone has been hiding abroad for 10 years after he committed a bank robbery with a small time crook called Nodger Wilson.

On the day he flies home to attend a funeral he runs into Betty, who used to be married to Nodger, and in an attempt to find out what happened to his share of the loot, he befriends Betty and her current husband Billy Blenkinsopp.

Their lives become inextricably linked towards a path that is leading to the Pearly Gates and a disgruntled Guardian Angel named Thelma.

If you are looking for a production for all the family then make sure you put The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe in your diary, which is at Towngate Theatre on Friday, November 11.

Open the wardrobe doors, push through the fur coats and enter the wondrous land of Narnia.

Young evacuees – Peter, Susan, Edmund and Lucy – are sent to a grand country mansion, where they discover a portal to a new world through a mysterious old wardrobe.

Journey with the four siblings to Narnia, an enchanting land where mythical creatures roam and animals speak.

Meet the adorable Mr. Tumnus and his whimsical friends, as they team up with lion Aslan to defeat the White Witch and save the land from her forces of evil.

From APL Theatre, the creators of the sellout 2015 UK tour of The Snow Queen comes this festive adaptation of C. S. Lewis's timeless story, which promises to be a magical and thrilling adventure for the whole family.

For further information about The Astor Big Band's More Miller Magic show, which is at 7.30pm on Saturday, September 17, as well as other shows at the Basildon theatre, call the box office on 01268 465465 or visit www.towngatetheatre.co.uk.

Who's the daddy?

BRIDGET JONES'S BABY
(15, 123 mins)

AS creative pregnancies go, Bridget Jones's Baby has taken longer than most to come full-term.

It's been 12 years since Renee Zellweger adopted a near-flawless English accent to portray the hapless singleton in Bridget Jones: The Edge Of Reason.

In the interim, writer Helen Fielding has delivered a third novel, Bridget Jones: Mad About The Boy, but it's her series of newspaper columns from more than a decade ago that fertilises this haphazard, yet joyful stumble into motherhood.

The third film throws a warm, affectionate and frequently hilarious baby shower for characters we've grown to love and proves that Bridget may have (finally) dieted down to her target dress size, but she's no closer to achieving her Happy Ever After.

Director Sharon Maguire, who helmed Bridget Jones's Diary, and her clucky trio of screenwriters, which includes co-star Emma Thompson, are in a celebratory mood.

They bookmark the hero-

Renee Zellweger as Bridget Jones.

ine's trials and vacillations with nostalgic flashbacks to earlier films reminding us of Bridget's infuriating obsessions and her fitful romantic dalliances with Colin Firth and Hugh Grant's par-amours.

"I'm trying not to think I'm past my sexual sell-by date," laments Bridget, as she careens at high speed towards her 43rd birthday without a wedding ring on her finger.

She works as a producer at Hard News alongside old boss Richard Finch (Neil Pearson) and newscaster pal Miranda (Sarah Solemani), who suggests a hedonistic girls-only weekend at a music festival.

The gal pals descend on a muddy field, which Miranda pithily describes as "Sodom and Gomorrah... with tofu".

A late-night blunder into the wrong yurt leads to a spontaneous coupling with a handsome American love guru called Jack Quant (Patrick Dempsey).

A few days later, Bridget is powerless to resist the silky charms of old flame Mark Darcy (Firth), who is separating from his wife.

A pregnancy test at work confirms that Bridget is about to gain weight. If only she knew who was the father.

Bridget Jones's Baby opens with a blast of the heroine's preferred anthem of self-pity – All By Myself – before a choice expletive kicks her out of a fug and the plot into first gear.

Zellweger slips back into the title role with ease, oozing lovability, fragility and regret as she wonders how to broach the subject of paternity with her two suitors.

Dempsey and Firth are attractive rivals for Bridget's brittle affections and the script keeps us guessing as long as possible about the course of true love.

Set-pieces including a tussle with a revolving door are genuinely hysterical and Thompson nabs several of the best lines as Bridget's despairing obstetrician, including a zinging one-liner that advises expectant fathers against witnessing the miracle of birth firsthand.

Ignorance, like Maguire's rumbustious film, is bliss.

Lost in the meze of Akropolis

ONE of the area's most popular Greek restaurants has attracted a growing fanbase since opening its doors more than 10 years ago and it is easy to see why.

With 25 main dishes, 28 starters, two set meals, and a variety of desserts on the menu, there is always something new at the Akropolis in Westcliff.

For those with a huge appetite, Akropolis serves a Greek Meze menu every day for £20.95 per person.

The menu, which introduces diners to the Cypriot way of eating, starts with tasty dips and pitta bread, and is followed by cold starters and fish dishes, Cypriot wine sausages, smoked loin of pork and grilled goat's milk cheese.

Then it's the meats, and even kleftico and stifado for those looking for more.

To finish you are given a taste of Greek pastries and an array of fresh fruits.

The Akropolis Meze, available for two or more people, is ideal for parties as the menu is meant to be lingered over.

There is also a Kleftico Feast, including traditional dips and pitta bread, kleftico, Greek pastries and a platter of fresh fruits, for £18.95 per person.

The mouth-watering food is not the only Akropolis attraction – the restaurant also produces a good line in live music on most days through the week.

The restaurant comfortably seats 60 people and has a well-stocked, fully licensed bar. It can cater for everything from a quiet meal for two to birthday celebrations. With experienced chefs and friendly, helpful staff, Akropolis offers a top quality, value-for-money evening out.

Akropolis, which can satisfy any special dietary needs and offers child-friendly dishes, is open seven days a week from 5pm to midnight from Monday to Thursday, from 5pm to 1am on Friday and Saturday, and from noon to midnight on Sunday.

The Akropolis is at 120 Station Road and ample parking is available 50 yards away, by the Cliffs Pavilion. Call 01702 437963.

Auction House – which has a branch in Essex - recorded its highest performing first quarter in the nine year history of the company.

Between January and March this year, the award-winning auctioneer sold an impressive 729 lots from 939 offered, raising a total of over £92 million pounds.

Commenting on the figures, Andrew Stallard said: "This is another set of excellent figures for the brand, helped in no small measure by the hectic push for completions before the introduction of extra Stamp Duty in April. However, it also means that according to the Essential Information Group (EIG), Auction House growth is now more than 10% ahead of other UK auctioneers, whose average growth was just 2.3% during the same period."

Auction House is also reporting that entries for its April auctions are at a similar level to last year, but that viewer activity has dropped back – something the group puts down to buyer hesitancy as the Stamp Duty rise and the upcoming Brexit vote take hold.

Andrew Stallard explained: "I believe that the auction market will quickly find the new norm, with investor buyers factoring in the new rates of Stamp Duty.

There is still a real shortage of housing stock in the UK, and population numbers are rising. Rents are pushing up too and first time buyer numbers are increasing aided by the many favourable government initiatives. However, the bigger influence for buyer sentiment during the second quarter this year will no doubt be the debate over Brexit".

"The property market never likes uncertainty – and the reduced demand means that more bargains could be found around the country in our auctions during April, May & early June. Our view is that the time is right for prudent investors to dip in rather than duck out."

Andrew Stallard says that the other change Auction House is witnessing is the growing number of 1st time & family buyers purchasing for owner occupation. He added: "This group now has a competitive advantage over those buying for improvement or investment. With auctions being increasingly seen as the route to a quick and certain purchase, we will be extending our services to help many more of them to switch from renting to home ownership."

Citroën's new vision of exec hatches

By Chris Russon

A FUTURISTIC take on executive motoring will be revealed by Citroën at its home motor show in Paris at the end of September.

The CXPERIENCE concept car is a plug-in hybrid which makes the most out of the latest technology inside and out.

It marks the debut of what Citroën is calling its Advanced Comfort programme which is designed to filter out almost all external noise and road undulations for a serene drive.

The concept car will be revealed on September 29 at the start of the Paris Motor Show – Europe's top motoring event in 2016.

At 4.85 metres in length and two metres wide the CXPERIENCE is longer but narrower than the likes of a BMW 3 Series yet with a low roof line, short front and rear overhangs and a wheelbase of three metres it looks stylish and purposeful.

Its sleek design makes the most out of the windows which include concave glass in the tailgate to help aerodynamics.

While much of the vehicle is pure concept, such as the vertical lift rear doors, the nose gives a clue to the next generation Citroëns with a narrow grille and double layered LED headlamps.

The tail lamps are also high-tech and use

CHALLENGER: Citroën has revealed a head-turning hybrid concept car called CXPerience laser fibre optics. Other innovations include cooling flaps in the front apron which open and close at speed to minimise drag and a moveable fin mounted on the tailgate.

More tangible features are Citroën's first petrol-electric plug-in hybrid powertrain and advanced connectivity.

Starting the car, controlling the air conditioning or adjusting the seats can be done from a smartphone or tablet.

The plug-in set up mates a petrol engine with an 80KW electric motor through an eight-speed automatic transmission and together they produce 300 horsepower. It can run for 37.5 miles purely on battery power – more zero emission range than the current crop of most PHEVs.

Recharging takes 4.5 hours from a standard power point – 2.5 hours from a quick charger.

Citroën was the pioneer of smooth running with its hydropneumatic suspension first introduced in the 1950s and the CXPERIENCE brings that right up to date with a system that 'cocoon' the cabin from noise and road surfaces.

Citroën describes it as a hydraulic cushion. Inside, the instrument panel features a large 19-inch touchscreen with a split-display function and while the use of cameras in place of the rear view mirrors is still some way off the car is fitted with Citroën's ConnectedCAM wide-view dashcam system which will be introduced on the new C3 later this year.

Linda Jackson, Citroën chief executive, said the concept was part of the company's Be Different, Feel Good goal for its future models. "The Citroën CXPERIENCE CONCEPT car challenges convention to express a new vision of executive hatchbacks," she said.

Back to basics for Blues as pressure grows on Brown

WHAT A SHOWER!

Football

Scunthorpe United 4
Southend United 0
Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at Glanford Park

SOUTHEND remain in the drop zone after completely crumbling at high-flying Scunthorpe last Saturday.

After a promising start, the Blues had no reply to Paddy Madden, Kevin van Veen and Josh Morris strikes either side of the break, with sub Richie Smallwood rubbing salt into the Shrimpers' wounds.

Boss Phil Brown made one change from the battling Bolton draw, the previous weekend, with Jakub Sokolik stepping in for the injured Anton Ferdinand (hamstring).

Against another of the division's pace-setters, the Shrimpers took the game to their hosts and Adam Barrett was denied by Luke Daniels's superb third minute save after Harry Kyprianou's lofted pass enabled John White to cross.

Despite averaging two goals a game, Scunthorpe found Southend a tough nut to crack early on, with Barrett dominant.

But having seconds beforehand gone close, Duane Holmes brought the best out of Ted Smith, with an 18th minute angled drive.

David Mooney should have netted on 30 minutes, but being favourite to beat Daniels to a poor back pass, he slipped and in a split second the chance was gone.

Southend kept up the pressure with Simon Cox going closest on 35 minutes, with Scunthorpe needing a desperate last-ditch Murray Wallace block.

But a minute later – and against the run of play – Madden opened the scoring with a scorching drive after the visitors were unable to cut out the lively Holmes's cross.

Strike partner Van Veen doubled the Iron's lead five minutes from the break, ending a fine move with dangerman Holmes's trickery carving out an almost identical chance down the Southend left, allowing the Dutchman to fire under a helpless Smith.

Southend were now on the ropes and full-back Scott Wiseman tried his luck in stoppage time and a confident deep cross beat the now shell-shocked Smith, but fortunately for the Shrimpers the ball hit the top of the bar.

In a bid to salvage something from an increasingly lost cause, Brown made a triple substitution at the interval, with Ben Coker, Stephen McLaughlin and Jermaine McGlashan on for Kyprianou, Jakub Sokolik and Adam King, walking a disciplinary tightrope after receiving a yellow card for a foul, respectively.

Despite Southend at least starting the second period on the front foot, with McLaughlin going close, an unchallenged

Morris was able to pick his spot and fire home from 25 yards on 57 minutes – game over.

Not satisfied with a now unsailable lead, the Iron continued to pummel the Blues goal, with Holmes and Madden going close, before Smallwood – on for Madden – blasted home two minutes from time, to leave a frustrated Brown admitting: "This job is my biggest challenge – but I'm up for the fight."

"I apologise – absolutely, one hundred percent to the fans. Performance-wise it wasn't acceptable."

"We needed a foothold in the game but it was backs to the wall when we had gone one then two-nil down. But the third and fourth goals were unacceptable."

He claimed: "One of two out of our eleven didn't care today."

"That will be rooted out this week. But our work rate wasn't enough – that was the difference between the two teams."

"To come here and lay down – as a group though – wasn't acceptable."

Brown concluded: "We need to galvanise this group, as I need to work with the players I've got. We need to get things right for Millwall this Saturday (kick-off 3pm)."

Skipper Barrett pulled no punches, and admitted: "We need to be more ruthless but words have been said in the dressing room."

"We need to roll up our sleeves and get back to basics –

BAD START: Blues boss Phil Brown

as at the moment we're in a position which we don't want to be in.

"It's only seven games into the season and there are still a lot of points to play for and it has been a bad start for us."

"We now need to go and show the fans – who have been magnificent – what we can do by going out and getting results."

Happy Iron boss Graham Alexander said: "The players were superb today. It was a big win for us."

"We passed the ball really well, committed bodies forward and scored four goals – it was as simple as that."

"Our front two, Paddy Madden and Kevin van Veen, were a handful for Southend today – but our keeper – Luke Daniels kept the scores at nil-nil with a world-class early save. It gave us a base to work from."

Scunthorpe United: Luke Daniels, Scott Wiseman, Murray Wallace, David Mirfin (captain), Conor Townsend, Duane Holmes (Sam Mantom 81), Neal Bishop, Josh Morris (Harry Toffolo), Paddy Madden (Richie Smallwood 77), Kevin van Veen.

Southend United: Ted Smith, John White, Adam Thompson, Adam Barrett (captain), Jakub Sokolik (Stephen McLaughlin 46), Harry Kyprianou (Ben Coker 46), Ryan Leonard, Adam King (Jermaine McGlashan), Will Atkinson, David Mooney, Simon Cox.

Daggers stay sharp with Hawkins hat-trick

By Brian Jeeves

DAGENHAM and Redbridge continued their steady start to the National League season with an emphatic 5-2 victory at Solihull Moors.

Oliver Hawkins bagged a hat-trick, including a late penalty, while Fejiri Okenabirhie and Jordan Maguire-Drew were also on target. Andy Brown and Jamey Osbourne replied for the West Midlands.

But it was not such a good day for Braintree Town. The Iron were hammered 4-1 by Gateshead at Cressing Road. Reece Styche hit a brace, with Patrick McLaughlin and Wes York completing the rout. Michael Cheek grabbed a consolation for the hosts who slipped into the relegation zone.

In the National League South, Robbie Willmott's goal just before the break earned Chelmsford City a 1-0 win at Whitehawk. This was the Clarets fourth victory on the bounce, moving them up to fourth in the table.

East Thurrock United were held 1-1 by Dartford at Rookery Hill. Ben Marlow gave the Rocks the lead from the penalty spot before Ryan Hayes rescued a point for the Kent outfit in front of a bumper crowd.

Meanwhile, Concord Rangers picked up their first victory of the campaign, winning 2-1 at Weston-super-Mare. Early goals from Joao Carlos and Steve Cawley put the Beach Boys in a strong position, and despite Shaun McCoulsky pulling one back, Concord held firm and moved off the bottom of the table.

Billerica Town earned an exciting 4-2 Ryman Premier League success over Leatherhead at New Lodge. Goldy Capela (2), Ricky Sapleton (penalty) and Alex Stephenson finding the net for the hosts.

However, it was a tough afternoon for Grays Athletic, who crashed 6-1 at Merstham, and Canvey Island, who were heavily beaten, 4-0 at Havant & Waterlooville.

Bowers & Pitsea are enjoying life in Division One North. Second half goals from Luke Wilson, James Thomas and Ben Sartain earned them a 3-1 win at Dereham Town.

Ryan Boswell's strike ensured Romford a 1-0 derby win over Tilbury, while goals from Harry Cook and Ronnie Winn helped Thurrock to a 2-1 success at Haringey Borough. Maldon & Tiptree were the big winners of the day, winning 6-0 at Wroxham. Adam Mills (2), Rhys Henry (2) and Tyler Brampton were among the goals, while Sam Newson completed a great week for his family, following up the success of his sister, Zoe Newson, who won a bronze medal at the Rio Paralympics for Powerlifting.

Ryan Charles and Scott Kemp earned Witham Town a 2-1 victory over Ware, and there was an entertaining 2-2 draw at Bridge Avenue between AFC Hornchurch and Brightlingsea Regent. Ricky Freeman and Ayrton Coley found the net for the Urchins, while Tom Richardson and a Kenzer Lee own goal earned the north Essex club a point. And it was the same outcome between Heybridge Swifts and Waltham Abbey. Glen Little and George Cole with the Swifts' goals, Darelle Russell and Romaric Logon for Abbey. Aveyley also earned a share of the spoils after a goalless draw at VCD Athletic.

Great Waking Rovers crashed 2-1 to Phoenix Sports at Burroughs Park. Billy Johnson with the villagers' goal.

Meanwhile, Lamar Reynolds' goal wasn't enough to save Brentwood Town from losing 3-1 at Soham Town Rangers.

Ilford made FA Vase progress, winning 3-1 at Spartan South Midland League outfit Harpenden Town, as did Burnham Ramblers, who saw off London Lions 2-1 at Leslie Field.

Southend Manor were also in Vase action, they thrashed West Essex 7-0 at Southchurch Park Arena. Takeley were among the goals, reaching the second qualifying round with a 7-2 win over Tower Hamlets, while Wadhams Lodge remain on the Wembley trail, winning 2-1 at Wivenhoe Town. London Bari went through, winning 3-0 over Newbury Forest. There was an incredible Vase tie at Oakside, where Redbridge came out on top in a nine-goal thriller with Eton Manor, 5-4.

In the Essex Senior League, Barkingside were 2-1 winners at Basildon United, while Sawbridgeworth Town won by the same scoreline at Hullbridge Sports.

Selected action from the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw Manford Way win their Premier Division clash at Buckhurst Hill 5-1, while Frenford Senior were the league's big winners, thumping Harold Hill 8-2.

In Division One, Shenfield AFC also picked up maximum points by beating Galleywood 3-1. Toby won by a single goal at Upminster in Division Two, while Shoebury Town were 3-0 winners over Leytonstone United in Division Three.

Triple medal haul for Abbie

Athletics

ABBIE LINEHAM won three historic medals for South Essex Gymnastics Club at the 2016 Disability Artistic Gymnastics British Championships at Lillleshall National Sports Centre, in Shropshire, on Sunday.

Abbie, who is 17 in October, became the first SEG C competitor at the event when she won gold on bars, silver on floor, and an overall bronze medal at the event.

The teenager, who has spina bifida, has been a member of the Basildon club for seven years and is coached by Kayleigh Peak and Cara Noble.

Kayleigh, South Essex's assistant head of Gym School, said: "We are so proud of Abbie. She is in shock still and didn't expect to do so well."

"She is now looking forward to the future in this discipline and she has a bright future after winning three British medals."

GOLDEN GIRL: Abbie Lineham

Seven times champ Nicholls in for AJ

Speedway

LAKE SIDE have booked seven-time British Champion Scott Nicholls as a guest for their crucial clash with Swindon at the Arena-Essex Raceway on Friday (8pm).

The Vortex Hammers are hoping to be in a position to snatch a top four spot with a win over the Robins in their final fixture of the regular season.

They need the Wiltshire outfit to leave Belle Vue empty-handed on Wednesday in order to keep their hopes alive heading into Friday's meeting.

Aces man Nicholls has been drafted in to cover for injured skipper Andreas Jonsson at No.1 as they look to extend their season.

Co-promoter Jon Cook has confirmed Jonsson's British season is over despite reports on speedwaygp.com suggesting he will ride in the Swedish Grand Prix on September 24.

The club is also looking at the possibility of bringing in a rider under the seven-day emergency play-off transfer window, which opens on Wednesday, should they reach the play-offs.
